An Unmitigated Lie. The Sedalia people have commenced their appeals for State aid already. The powerful and wealthy young metropolis that was going to pay the expenses of the that was going to pay the expenses of the removal of the capitol, and make such mighty contributions for its construction, is on its bended knees before the Legislature supplicating contributions for the purchase of a steam fire engine. Of course the contribution was refused.—State Journal.

Sedalia has the best fire department any city in the State except St. Louis and Kansac City. And it's paid for, too, you second-hand conservy huckster.

Refunding Certificates.

Postmaster Parker has been made an agent by the government for the sale of refunding certificates.

These certificates are a good and safe investment for those of small means.

Col. Parker yesterday filed the requisite who does not throb for persecuted by the government for those of small means.

Col. Parker yesterday filed the requisite who does not throb for persecuted humanity when there is apparently no reason to believe humanity miles on the Hannibal road, and made inquired the road to Hannibal two about two miles further on the Hannibal road, and learned that Meirs was about three-tourths went on about two miles further on the Hannibal road, and learned that Meirs was about thirty minutes ahead, and had inquired the road to Hannibal road, and wast two miles from Mexico. We traveled about twenty and beared that Meirs was about three-tourths went on about two miles from Mexico. We traveled about twenty and beared that Meirs was about three-tourths went on about two miles from Mexico. We traveled about twenty and beared that Meirs was about three-tourths went on about two miles from Mexico. We traveled about twenty and beared that Meirs was about three-tourths went on about two miles from Mexico. We traveled about twenty and beared that Meirs was about three-tourths went on about two miles from Mexico. We traveled about twenty and beared that Meirs was about three-tourths went on about two miles from Mexico. We traveled about twenty and beared that Meirs was about three-tourths went on about two miles from Mexico. We traveled about twenty and beared that Meirs was about three-tourths went on about two miles from Mexico. We traveled the forks of the coaks, we net a gentic cle. His heart does not throb bis x miles from Mexico. We traveled the forks of the apparent to make the persecuted.

On the contrary, if the real facts were known and published "humanity" hours county to make the about twenty and beared that Me bond for $50,000, giving aix securities who certified to being worth in the aggregate $280,000. Thus Sedalia takes another step in metropolitan progress, and the described village in the State Cemetery will please notice the fact.

Death of Miss Annie Hackett, the daughter of Mr. John J. Hackett of the Kaw Valley hotel, departed this life after a lingering and protracted illness, Friday morning at an original and searched him, but could find nothing on his person or possession answering the description. Will here state that when we arrested him here was an searched him, but could find nothing on his person or possession answering the description. Will here state that when we arrested him here was an searched him, but could find nothing on his person or possession answering the description. Will here state that when we arrested him here was an searched him, but could find nothing on his person or possession answering the description. Will here state that when we arrested him here was an searched him, but could find nothing on his person or possession answering the description. Will here state that when we arrested him here was an searched him, but could find nothing on his person or possession answering the description. Will here state that when we arrested him here was an searched him, but could find nothing on his person or possession answering the description. Will here state that when we arrested him here was an searched him, but could find nothing on his and searched him, but could find nothing on his description. The life is the state that when we arrested him here was an searched him, but could find nothing on his and searched him, but could find nothing on his description.

The Doctor, like hundreds of others, had been for weeks suspicious of the party afterwards arrested. The atti-tive head him, but could find nothing on his and searched him, but could find nothing on his description.

The Doctor, like hundreds of others, had been for weeks suspicious of the party and he was answered, "What are you agon bond for $50,000, giving six securities who criticized by the Moberly Daily) took among friends and the angel of her pa-

The star will be silver plated, the same below the wreath will be the inscription, ladies, but for some reason or other the "Messrs, Williams and Broome: "Sedalia Police." There will be twenty of these stars ordered, numbered from one up.

I have arrived in Moberly and I want to nating Frenchman would seek "faces nating Frenchman would seek "faces new." Money he freely spent, very clock this morning. Satisfaction I must The star and buttons will be the property frequently showing city stopping at Mrs. W. A. Morrill's on Journal, called on the Bazoo yesterday.

to-day at the Reformed church.

for his speedy return. Matrimonial

On Friday next, May the 16th, John
I. West will be publicly hung at the ed, black haired, heavy mustached property and for the part they subsequentold Fair Ground, in East Boonville, man, with a sack coat, slouch hat, near the river, at 10:30 a.m. The scaf-fold will be built during this week and all arrangements made by the Sheriff. Prohibition Defeated

The concurrent resolution to submit to Williams saw him she said

AND MORERLY'S MYSTERY

Who a Lady Swears is a Thief

MOBERLY, Mo., May 10th.

It is not the intention of your correspondent to do injustice to any of the parties to whom he refers in this artiprotracted illness, Friday morning at an suit and arrest upon a different change early hour. A host of friends have been from the one that would have founded

Thomas Hackett, of this city. He left for Kanasa Giy last night to attend the funeral, which takes place this morning.

Mow Police Uniform.

Alderman Frank Newton went to 8t. Louis last week to take a look at the Matropolitans and see what would best becomes our own force. They have escellated and one of Colonel Joseph Meirs was at least very odd if not attractive. Various police, which consists of blue fannel seet. The coat to be single-breasted, with short turnover collar, to button close to the chin, and to reach half way from the hip join to the knee, with four silver plated buttons bears ing the lesters B. P. on the front, and pockets to show on coulide. Pantalonom same style as uniform pants, indige blue. A pick plate that the same style as uniform pants, indige blue. A pick plate that the same style as uniform pants, indige blue. A pick plate that the same style as uniform pants, indige blue. A pick plate that the same in the scale of the same style as uniform pants, indige blue. A pick plate that the same in the scale of the same style as uniform pants, indige blue. A pick plate that the same in the scale of the same style as uniform pants, indige blue. A pick plate the same in the scale of the same style as uniform pants, indige blue. A pick plate the same individual pants and proper state of the same individual, and a main pants to be single-breasted, with short turnover coller, to button close to the chin, and to reach half way from the hip join to the knee, with four silver plated buttons bears ing the lesters B. P. on the front, and the same style as uniform pants, indige blue.

Alderman Frank Newton wast to 8t. Louis and the same individual pants and the same individual, and a proper state that the same individual, and a proper state to the same individual, and a proper state to the same individual, and a proper state to the same individual, and a proper state the same individual, and proper state to the same individual, and proper state to the same individual, and proper state to same style as uniform pants, indigo blue.

A white shirt, black necktie, single breast
Linted, the matter quieted down to the tinted, the matter quieted less thought.

A white shirt, black necktie, single breasted vest with nine buttons, and a cap of extent that persons talked less, thought more and became more suspicious.

also his buttens. In a very chort time our police will present a very tony appearance.

especially in saloons, where he would invite everybody and everybody's friends up to the altar. Notwithstanding the suspicion with which he was Between 12 midnight of Saturday and 1:30 a.m. Sunday, the estidence of Dr. Broome was entered by burglars, who was again applied to one of the parties who obtained nothing from the Doctor's had been interested and with a result, bet"store of wealth and valuables," but ter than attended his previous effort, which Journal, called on the Basoo yesterday.

—Mr. Chas. W. Bullen will leave for St. Louis on the 20th inst. as a representative to the Grand Lodge I O O F, of Missouri —Store of wealth and valuables, "but upon entering the room occupied by John T. Williams, our progressive lumber merchant, secured the watches belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Williams, also $75.00 in money, and other valuables," but the state of wealth and valuables, "but upon entering the room occupied by John T. Williams, tive to the Grand Lodge I O O F, of Missouri belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Williams, also $75.00 in money, and other valuables, "but the state of wealth and valuables," but is given as follows: Correspondent—Well, what hap belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Williams, also $75.00 in money, and other valuables, "but the state of wealth and valuables," but is given as follows: Correspondent—Well, what hap belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Williams, also $75.00 in money, and other valuables, "but the state of wealth and valuables," but is given as follows: Correspondent—Well, what hap belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Williams, also $75.00 in money, and other valuables, "but the state of wealth and valuables," but is given as follows: Correspondent—Well, what hap belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Williams, also $75.00 in money, and other valuables, "but the state of wealth and valuables," but the state of wealth and valuables, "but the state of wealth and valuables," but the state of wealth and valuables, "but the state of wealth and valuables," but the state of wealth and valuables, "but the state of wealth and valuables," but the state of wealth and valuables, "but the state of wealth and valuables," but the state of wealth and valuables, we will be stated by the state of wealth and valuables, we will be stated by the state of wealth and valuables, we will be stated by the stated

This caused the burglar to withdraw

-Mrs. W. W. S. Snoddy left on the morning train yesterday for a brief visit to friends at Smithton. The Colonel will pray the street, the door having previously in P. No. been opened. On the same night, and C-But do you think any one else had within a short time four other houses any?

arrests on suspicion effected, extra to the Count's threats?

policemen and brave citizens tread the I P—No. For there were parties stand-This evening, at 8 o'clock at the German Lutherns Church, Rev. Chas. Kraft officiating those who despoil others to enrich themselves. But on Sunday one event transpired that was kept very quiet, I P—No. For there were parties and the Count with bullets if he had shown a pistol after stating he had none.

I P—No. For there were parties and the Count with bullets if he had shown a pistol after stating he had none.

I P—No. For there were parties and the Count with bullets if he count with bullets if he had shown a pistol after stating he had none.

I P—No. For there were parties and the Count with bullets if he count with bullets if he had shown a pistol after stating he had none.

I P—No. For there were parties and the Count with bullets if he had shown a pistol after stating he had none. to the recovery of the articles and de- nature of Messrs. Broome and Williams to tection of the guilty party. When Mrs. Williams was asked a description time at the show-windows with great satisfaction, he coolly walked right into the stere to look at the latest styles. He was captured without damage.

—Several nice city residences for sale.

5-11d20t Houron & Bornwall.

The services of a detective. No active measures were adopted, however, and on Tuesday morning Dr. Broome left for Mexico to attend the meeting of the Lintum Medical Society at that place. The Dr. was unanimously elected President of the coming year, on Tuesday, and on Wednesday he was to be installed. On Wednesday morning the Dr. is positive he cannot be mistaken, before 7 o'clock, when he saw the Colonel whom he was talking? horse seeming fatigued. The Doctor's susnicions having once been aroused, received an impetus, and he at once telegraphed to Mr. Williams. The telegram read as follows: "What is the Count doing here with a Moberly buggy and horse?" (The Colonel is almost entirely known as "The Count.") To this telegram the Dr. received the following: "Horse and buggy all right couple of deputies disengaged, he would put it. them into service.

Possibly there is no better manner by which I may explain the pursuit, capture and subsequent events, than by Sheriff Glasscock's letter.

Dr. Gro. W. Broone, Moberly, Mo.:

Dr. Gro. W. Broone, Moberly, Mo.:

Dr. Sir.—We had a long and tiresome ride after

Dr. Col, Meirs, and finally overtook him at a farm house fifteen miles northeast of Mexico. We upon the Dr.'s information. The Dr. did no wrong, nor did he even intend any. His suspicions were aroused, he communicated them to the proper communicated the bles. The burglars awoke Mrs. Williams who, though badly frightened, attended to awaken her husband. This she found impossible, and for the space of a couple of minutes had ample time to study the party, so boldly skipping around.

Mr. R. J. Eggleston leaves on the 21st as representative to the Grand Encampment I. Q. O. F. of Missouri, which meets who, though badly frightened, attended to make it how had arms to give them up. Dr. Recommendate the make and at once the same as a same as the color in costume. A band of the same also passes around the round the property of the pleating on the skirt, and is draped a little higher at the sides, necessitating a narrow facing of the tames to study the party, so boldly skipping around the room helping himself to for him, and wanted to know if it was not for him, and wanted to know if the count is deen to come it he count is deen to come it he lining.

The back of skirt has a long of the tames of the count is deen to come it he lining.

The Broome stated he was armed and at once

-Miller Bullard, of the Pacific, is in town crossing his legs under the Garrison town crossing his legs under the Garrison House tables. He goss East this morning and a young lady on Fifth street years for his speedy return.

Were entered and property appropriatively ap ting, Mr. August Moyer will be united in transpired that was kept very quiet, marriage to Miss Mattie Londermann, both with the expectation that it would lead and bulldozing manner demanded the sig-

AN ARTICLE FOR PUBLICATION

C-What become of the stranger with Written for the Sunday Morning Baros drive by the hotel in a Moberly buggy, the I P-Bob did not know positively, but thought they went off on the train.

C-What train was about to leave? I P-He did not say, but he had men tioned being at the depot to change some baggage that was to go off on the M. K. & T. for a traveling man. C-Was Sheriff Glasscock's letter read

I P-Yes. C-What was the effect on him? I. P-He flew off of his cabasis.

C-What else was in the room ? that portion of the letter in regard to her.

would watch the Count, and as he had a he stopped and said he did not like to read C-What did she do? I. P-She gave the signal for

"BREAKS OFF" and away went the Dr. rattling C-How did she receive it?

I. P-Did not affect her to any great ex would stagger her, and dampen her ardor.

didn't they?
I P-Yes, and they were very much sur prised and grieved to see that it had no ef-C-Did you hear anything of the lad visiting Mr. Williams and demanding as explanation from her in regard to her renition of the Colonel? I P-Yes. Mrs. Williams was, called upon by the lady, and was at once de manded to tell why she had done such gross injustice to the Colonel.

C—Mrs. Williams reply?

I P—Was to the effect that she had

A VOLLEY OF WORDS. cross-firing, a retreat by the visitor, who re quested that nothing be said in regard the visit, and a continuation of the friend ship previously existing. The motion for friendship met with rejection, and the meeting with rejection, and the meeting ad C-It doubtlem in considered an impeudent step of the lady's, is it not?

grieved over this step.
C-What do you think of the case? I P-I do not like to state. I am not a very long dry spell, won't it?

1. P— What do ye soy?

-Speed Stephens, of Boonville, is exceeded in town to-day.

-Mr. Bond will favor Sedelia with his reserve the last of this week.

-W. H. Adams, of St. Louis, is in the ity stopping at Mrs. W. A. Morrill's on lifth street.

-Speed Stephens, of Boonville, is expressions, and other circumstances the couple were engaged and would enter the matrimonial state during the first week of May. But also for Madam Rumors promulgations that event did not take place, but a much more interesting event did.

-W. H. Adams, of St. Louis, is in the ity stopping at Mrs. W. A. Morrill's on lifth street.

-Speed Stephens, of Boonville, is expressions, and other circumstances the couple were engaged and other circumstances to me however, and I at once proceeded to the "seat of war" (?) anxiously awaiting the count with two of Moberly's citizens the Count with two of Moberly's citizens the Count with two of Moberly's citizens that event did not take place, but a Broome and A. S. Hall, entered the door of the Rothwell House. In three quarters of an hour the party came down stairs much less material. Surely good, solid reasons, all of them.

The advantage in this is one band less around the waist, the trouble of two skirts, and requiring much less material. Surely good, solid reasons, all of them.

The advantage in this is one band less around the waist, the trouble of two skirts, and requiring much less material. Surely good, solid reasons, all of them.

The advantage in this is one band less around the waist, the trouble of them.

The summer silks, this season, are ever so pretty, because the count. There were no blanched for the waist and the count was the count of the waist and the count waist and the count was the count of the material surely and would enter the matrimonial state they accompanied him to keep with the count was the count was the count of the waist and wall down each side with a broad bias of silk, with an embroidery or passementeric of different shades of the color in contame. A band of the same also passes around the upper pout.

The basque is round, and trimmed down each front, and around the bottom, the same as the over-skirt. We should have added a knife-pleating of silk trims across the apron, with passementeric through the center, Large pockets are placed on the sides, trimmed with knife-pleating and passementeric across the bottom.

We imagine our lady readers will be delighted to know that pockets are again worn upon costumes and others, who one-year-old yielded to furnish all twelve pounds and another fourteen. The wool of these was exceedingly fine and very long.

In addition to the Merinos, the Major has a number of pure Shropshire downs and Cotswolds. Also a shiredowns and Cotswolds. Also a with the gayest of buttons in color, and oddest of shapes.

Polka dots seem to be the rage. Grave colors, in sirk, are profusely trimmed with fine polka dots of like material or silk.

Parasols are covered with polka-dotted silk, satin or foulard. Cambries and prints all show the same effect. While some of the cambries have polka-dotted centers and striped borders, others are plain centers and the polka dot in border.

Satin still continues with other fabries as a trimming; for instance, a costume may be of plain blue silk, with garniture of damasse in florated satin. Double-faced satin ribbon is another accessory, in the shape of looping, knots and pleatings under lace in the neck, and at the wrists of the basque.

the robbery of Mr. and Mrs. Williams of the part they subsequently acted his arrest, etc.

C—Did they (B and W) do this?

I P—No. They said this, however that "if Captain and Mrs. Baker to be fashionably working he passed Dr. Broome's residence with the lady, and as soon as Mrs. Williams saw him she said

"THERE IS THE VERY MAN NOW, that I saw in my room." Mr. Williams and the Doctor attempted to convince her to the contrary, but she was so firm in her declaration that they decided to watch the Colonel's moverments. They did so on Sunday, but disliking the capacity in which they disliking the capacity in which they disliking the capacity in which they do lack and so was mall, dark complexion—the part they subsequently and for the part they subsequently and for the part they subsequently acted his arrest, etc.

C—Did they (B and W) do this?

I P—No. They said this, however that "if Captain and Mrs. Baker coll only sand pleatings, and inserting are marveles of taste, so prettily are they organize are marvels of taste, so prettily are they organ

-The "women's friend is what D Buffs Beltimore Pills may well be termed, for every woman that has come used them will not be without them.

IN MEMORIAL

LIBOY & MILIS.

In battle array on the field of war, Charges the eager moddened host, Then somebody writes to the friends afar This message, perhaps "died at his post." The mother, or wife, mid her latter tears. Feels a thrill of pride-ah! feerful cost Though mourning maybe, and for many years

When loud martial music pulses the heart With quicker beat, (the day may be lost), And the blood like rain from the blue vein But soldies never desert their post! In the murky night, with death by his side,

To find in the tumult a soldier's grave. The hand on the valve grew nerveless and weak The dizzy brain felt the hold of death-Away o'er the plain, like the cyclone's freak, The engine sped, but the feeter breath,

Are falling now, and the father's heart Will carry a cloud for wearisome years-

Sometimes a whistle will sound on the air, And the mother will say, "My boy is dead; He stood by that engine over there, With the brown curls blowing about his I And sounded for me that sharp, shall note. To tell me good-bye, or, all is well;

But now to my ears that sound does float Like a solemn dirge or a funeral knell." He sang ere he died-as a comrade said-A hymn like a prayer-its words are lost .-What more can I say? Leroy is dead, And died like a hero-"died at his post"

THE MODEL FARM.

Gentry's.

The climax of pastoral interest is quality of a very superior order.

handsome profit annually until they ation that no one in the house was field it was referred to the pension

In addition to these he has a num-ber of select, in ported, pure-blooded will be rewarded by a complete cure. In addition to these he has a num-that so much courage and endurance the Warner silver bill.

Mr. Kelley and it was not specially varieties, among which are eleven head of Spanish Merinos-eight ewes and three bucks. One of the Merino and three bucks. One of the Merino Pic Nic Grounds for the coming sensor, bucks yielded a fleece of fourteen and are now prepared to receive pleasure dollar, when neither the President pounds; another fifteen and one-half parties, Sunday Schools and others, who signed the bill, nor the members pounds. One one-year-old yielded are allowed the grounds free of charge, Claxton," a yearling, that produced ing. Her mate, a pure Leicester buck, is named "Mug," also a year buck, is named "Mug," also a year at Co., in their elegant new quarters on Wa-ten years old, weighs 1,660 pounds. and a deep bay in color.

best of stock upon his premises. If all our country gentlemen would follow his example, Missouri in a few years could present such a showing

The pure, bracing air is a wondertul promoter of appetite, and the hospitable summons to dinner was a wel come one. Accepting the liberal in vitation of our host, the reporter joined a large and merry party at the family table, which was loaded in abundance with substantial and admirably prepared food. Never before did the sweet, fresh products of the farm, garden, and dairy appear a palatable, or were more heartily en joyed or appreciated.

was next on the tapis, which was the shearing of the sheep. This was done in a large barn, to which the party repaired. The modus operandi was very simple, and the men engaged in it worked with a rapidity and ease that showed long practice. The anima was seized, thrown upon his haunches and held in an upright position. few rapid clips at the head and neck, and the fleecy fold fell Sheep Shearing Day at Major one unbroken mass until the operation was complete. The general yield of fleece was surprisingly large, and its

Cutting a Cancer from Her Arm stancially the same as agreed to be with Her Own Hand:

handsome profit annually until they ation that no one in the nouse was are about six years old—then they aware of it until some time after. Having bound up and covered the terrible wound in her arm, she went about her household as usual. Of presented as enrolled and signed by

Pie Nie Grounds.

Written for the Sunday Morning Bases WHEN YOU AND I WENT MAYING.

My Anna, do you call to mind A day of green and golden splender; A race, bright day, in gladsome May, When all the earth was fresh and tender

When in your crisp, white muslin dress, Your ringlets round your shoulders straying Your broad brimmed hat so neat and pat Upon your curis, we went a-Maying.

How eagerly we hamched our boat Upon the graceful, winding river; low like a chime of merry rhyme Your laugh set every leaf a-quiver As lifting high one flashing our You sent the spray aloft, dear Anna; With toss and glide we took the tide

Adown the silvery Susquehanna. And rowing on that storied stream. And gath'ring shells upon the island The moments passed, and all too fast The shadows lengthened from the highland; The binds trilled out their evening song; We chid the swiftly passing hours, But sought the strand, hand clasped by hand, har baskets running o'er with flowers. The pink arbutds trailed above, The daisy, queen of all the meadows, he violet like mignonette,

Was full of strange sweet scents We wove them in a shining wreath And crowned you queen, there in the glo That glad bright day, in early May, In lovely, classic, dear Wyoming!

Those were the days, my bonny lass, of joy with nought a shade of sorrow; * We held them sweet fair and complete. Nor sought the gifts of doubtful morrow

We were content with present joys-As happy as the bards, my Anna-When side by side we took the tide And drifted down the Susquehans SPATIA, May 10, 1879.

Afternoon Report Berne, he was shot down and fatally Associated Press Dispatches to the terest of Col. Walter S. Church, who Basco Over the Western Union Company's Line up to Four O'clock.

appropriations, said the bill was subthe committee on conference at a former session of Congress with a few as proposed last year, or did it differ by ings will be heeded and at least for the Senator Beck replied he was not prepared to answer as he had not president pro tem. It will now be reciprocating the latter's wish for the about her household as usual. Of presented as enrolled and signed by course the result of this fearful piece of surgery is difficult to predict. The girl is not at present suffering any ill effects, and it is sincerely to be hoped that a number of the sequence of the se

St. Louis, May 10.—The delegates to the National Woman's Suffrage As-sociation visited the Merchants' Exchange about noon to day by invita-tion of the directory and were greeted eith cheers, clapping of hands, etc. She Now Has the Largest and They were escorted to the restrum by President John Wahl and Vice President McEnnis, where they were introdent McEnnie, where they were intro-

Fratricide, Matricide and Farricide is paid at the office of publicataken by O. R. Keith & Co. and transferred to the newly-instead Williams Building on We bash avenue.—Chicago Tribuns, March 23.

The badies of the father and mother will be exhaused. that his share would be less then

A Tramp's Trick. New York, May 10.—This morning a tramp demanded the money in the possession of Frank Carter, station master of Bogota on the New Jersey Miciland railroad, and being refused, fatally shot Carter.

A Lottery. Paris, May 10.-The minister of the interior has authorized the vice ident of the committee of the Franco-American Arion to organize a lottery of 300,000 one-franc tickets to raise funds for the the completion of the statue of liberty to be presented to the United States.

Received. Washington, May 10.-The President to-day received the bill to prohibit military interference at election

Execution and a Fight. Augusta, Ga., May 10.-After the double execution yesterday in Columbia county, there was an affray among the whites, of McLuffie county, who attended the hanging. Twenty-five wounded: Jack Usry, shot in the abdomen, mortally; Shade Shawe, in the hand and hip; Cainy, wounded in the scalp, and Hugh Smith, a bystander, slightly in the hand.

Patally Shot. Albany, N. Y., May 10.-While Leonard Chamberlain, deputy sheriff of this county, was serving a process to disposees John Frederick at East wounded. He was acting in the inhas charge of manoral lands.

The Ameer Accep's. London, May 10.-The dispatch from Labore announcing that the

The Times says the government has no intention of dissolving Parliament Depression. Vienna, May 10.-The Fremdenblate says "the Czar's proclamation has pro-Senator Edmunds inquired what is duced a distressing effect on East Roucalled political legislation is the same melians, but it is believed his warnpresent tranquility will be undisturbed.

Russian Affairs. London, May 10.- According to compared the two propositions.

London, May 10. - According to advices from Constantinople, the Sulmust triendly relations between the Bye—the to the.

Barley—70c.
Pork—Steady; $0 50.
Lard—Steady; $6 10.
Whisky—$1 04.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK MARKET

SEDALIA

CHRAPEST AND BEST PAPER

CENTRAL MISSOURI.

office in Pettis County. Subscribers who take their paper at postoffices outside of Pettis County, will remit 20 cents extra for postage, which

Send in your names and

No name put upon the subscription book unless accomnanied with the cash. Address remittances or com

J. WEST GOODWIN.

An Amatory Oddity Under Arrest

in constant attendance during her sickness and every effort was made for her recovery police, only in place of the State coat of arms there will be a wreath, in the center of which will be the number. Above and -A. A. Bothwell is confined in his room, corner of Massachusetts and Seventh streets of this city. TO BE HUNG.

navy blue will complete the costume.

and talented publisher of the Louisian tiquor, failed to pass the Senate on Fri day, and the Doctor attempted to convince her to the contrary, but she was so firm in her declaration that they defirm in her declaration that they destroy the Colonel's move. -A locus home, after persubulating around town to look at the sights, yester-day morning, loteled up in front of the Chicago Store. After looking for some the services of a detective. No active

This was forwarded by Mr. Williams, and Dr. Browne at once communicated the facts to Mr. A. Glasscock, the sheriff of Audrain county. The sheriff told the Dr. that he tracked nim altogether by his buggy track. When he left Mexico, he inquired the road to Louisiana; the Louisiana and Hannibal road forked about two and a half nules east of Mexico. When we reached the forks of the roads, we met a gentle man that told me he met a man drivings top bug grimed visages, mutilated carcames or nothing to indicate the meeting a stormy Correspondent-Well, what happened up Interested Party-Oh, they did not effect gave up his pistol to Dr. Carmody. C-Did any one else give up their

"Its sweet to know "Hg died at his post,"

Old '75 bore a heart more brave Than one who into the wild battle rides

Was gone before the sought-for goal was won. Leroy was dead; and the boys at most Could only write to the parents-"Your son Leroy is dead, but died at his post!"

Foll the bell softly; the mother's sai tears So hard it is for dear ones to part.

stated that she believed Col. Meers guilty, and did so then.

I P-Yes, and is very unfortunate. The lady is most respectably connected, and persons, hitherto her friends, are much among friends and the angel of ner parents' household.

The family have the sympathy of the entire community in this their bereavement.

Muss Hackett was the niece of Mr. Thomas Hackett, of this city. He left for thems Hackett, of this city. He left for small, dark complexioned, dark muss.

much less material. Surely good, solid reasons, all of them.

The summer silks, this season, are ever so pretty, and seem to be a better quality than heretofore, while the prices of these pretty silks in costumes are astonishingly low. We noticed one in an odd stripe of blue and black, neatly made and trimmed, for $19, and one in small size for $17.50. Black and plain silks are also made up at unheard-of prices, most or them basque and trimmed skirts to simulate the two skirts. $25 to $40 is marked upon these solid silk costumes, and they are really stylish-looking.

delicate purity.

Very many white crystal ornaments are seen, especially long daggers, with the hilt of three white crystals imbedded in the frame work of silver or gold.

Blaves.

Nearly all of the beautiful pastures were enlivened by little groups of thoroughbred stock, whose sleek condition betokened the greatest care, and their gentleness and docility plainly vouched for the kindness of their treatment. The Major believes that a good animal is more profitable than an inferior one, and hence he has made it a rule to have nothing but the

as would challenge the world for com-

Dinner over, the event of the day communicating their suspicions to the proper authorities, who subsequently find other suspicious facts in connection with the same individual, an arrest follows, then cepted an invitation to visit the model farm of Major Wm. Gentry, and witness the annual process of sheep shearing. Living in a plain cottage situated the annual process of sheep shearing. is the citizen to be consured by the press In early days, in some localities, this ment near Portville, about seven because of a mistake. I think the defense set up was very poor, for there was no "in-human treatment" in the part of Dr. Broome. He did what he considered his participated in by neighbors who came has been almost a helpless invalid for to tender their help, and the work was many years. She herself has long generally concluded with a feast and suffered with a terrible cancer on the dance. But this progressive age has upper part of her left arm. To cure ference at elections was signed by the tan intends to send a reply to the Czar done away with the good old time this or to alleviate the torment of mind and body which it has caused taken to President Hayes.

region before, and then not known and one could be solided. The matter quieted down to the complete down to the co ling, who yielded twelve pounds of bash avenue, marks an era in the commercial addresses were then made by Mrs. ling, who yielded twelve pounds of wool. These two animals were imported by Major Gentry from England at a heavy expense. Their fleece is very long and of the finest texture.

The undersigned have leaved the Beaman

Leaving the sheep, the reporter accompanied the Major over his splendid domains, the improvements of which more resemble some of the ancient baronial estates of England, than the creation of one man in his lifetime, we came to where the thoroughbred, was grazing. This animal is a magnificent apecimen of his race, and weighs 2,270 pounds, although he is not in fiesh. A dark red, with every line for the infection of the discovered in the processing of the first of wool. These two animals were im- histor; of the great Northwest, and, in fact. Stanton, Miss Anthony, Mrs. Thomp

ONLY $1.00 PER ANNUM. Postage free to any postmunications to

SEDALIA, MC.